An association of synagogues and other religious, education, fraternal and community organizations, the Northeast Queens Jewish Community Council (NEQJCC) covers Bay Terrace, Bayside, Bellerose, Douglaston, Floral Park, Fresh Meadows, Glen Oaks, Hillcrest, Holliswood, Hollis Hills, Jamaica Estates, Little Neck, New Hyde Park, Oakland Gardens and Queens Village (north).

A beneficiary of UJA-Federation, the NEQJCC works closely with the Metropolitan Council on Jewish Poverty ("Met Council"), Samuel Field/Bay Terrace Y, Parker Jewish Institute for Health Care and Rehabilitation ("Parker"), Queens Hadassah and Jewish Community Relations Council of New York ("JCRC").

NEQJCC projects include maintaining a community calendar, neighborhood development, Jewish continuity including Shalom Bayit/Healthy Marriage, Lay Leadership, social action, promoting involvement and volunteer opportunities, fostering intergroup understanding and building a multi-cultural coalition. The Council combats anti-Semitism and discrimination, sponsors forums with major public figures, Jewish cultural events, open discussions with local Rabbis and represents community concerns. Its newest program, the Harmony Initiative or "Hi" represents a collaboration funded by the City Council including the Office of the Queens District Attorney, the City Commission on Human Rights and the Northeast Queens Branch-NAACP. Find more information about council programs, events, activities and advocacy, including photos, in our Statements link on our website, www.northeastqueensjewish.org.

As part of its Neighborhood Development efforts, the Council helped form the NORC-WOW, a pilot program to serve seniors in one and two family homes. The Council publishes a (four-fold, 8.5 by 14-inch) brochure, You Can Have It All, touting life in northeast Queens communities, also available through its website.

Annual programs include its Installation of Officers and Awards Reception (See the 2009 invite and the 2008 program journal) sponsored by each fall by Parker Jewish Institute for Health Care and Rehabilitation, the lighting of the largest Chanukah Menorah in Queens, Pre-Passover and Fall Food Drives sponsored by Parker Jewish Institute for Health Care and Rehabilitation and Met Council, a Purim Carnival, at the Samuel Field Y and participation in the annual Salute to Israel parade.

Each Spring, the Council holds its Annual Legislative Forum, co-sponsored by Parker, Met Council, JCRC and Queens Region-Hadassah, at the Samuel Field Y. In 2002 and 2004, the Council, together with Queens Hadassah and the Consulate of Israel, hosted the Ben Yeduda Street Comes to Bayside, an Israeli Gifts Fair, which attracted thousands of visitors who purchased direct from Israeli merchants and listened to Israeli entertainers. In celebration of Israel's 60th, Hadassah and NEQJCC organized a 2008 Ben Yeduda fair and concert.

October 25, 2009

Dear Friends:

Best wishes to the Northeast Queens Jewish Community Council on the occasion of your annual Installation of Officers & Awards Reception!

Our Jewish Community Councils provide a vital lifeline to countless populations in need -- homebound senior citizens, recent immigrants, and low-income New Yorkers, to name just a few. In addition, our JCC's create a vibrant sense of community by organizing celebrations of Jewish festivals and by convening forums of great importance to New York Jewry throughout the year.

The Northeast Queens Jewish Community Council has a long and distinguished record of service. You were one of the first organizations to identify the needs of the "hidden poor" in our midst. Your Chanukah lighting with the local Chabad is known locally and beyond the Borough. And your Harmony Initiative builds meaningful bridges across cultures. Today's event is a chance to thank NEQJCC's Executive Chair Corey Bearak, President Jack Friedman, and Executive Director Gail Eisenberg, as well as all the Officers and Members.

Congratulations to this year's honorees: Hadassah Curriculum Watch and its Chair, Dr. Sandra Alfonsi; the Honorable Archie Spigner, my former colleague in public office and my good friend; Susie Tanenbaum, whom I brought with me to Queens Borough Hall to serve as my special assistant on Immigrant, Jewish, and Inter-Cultural Affairs; and Dave Slotnick & Samantha Lessa, recipients of the Rivka Fox Youth Awards.

I am proud to have supported the Northeast Queens Jewish Community Council over the years, and I look forward to working with all of you in time to come. Mazal Tov!

Sincerely,

HELEN M. MARSHALL

Outstanding Service to the Community of Queens

Honorable Archie H. Spigner

Councilman Archie Spigner, a member of the City Council from 1974 to 2001, represented the Southeast Queens communities of Hollis, Jamaica, Queens Village, St. Albans, Addisleigh Park, Rosedale, and Cambria Heights. Councilman Spigner rose to the post of Deputy Majority Leader, its second highest position. His legislative responsibilities included Chair of the Legislative Office of Budget Review and the Committees on Economic Development and Housing and Buildings. He also served on the Council's Budget Negotiating Team and was liaison for the Council's 14 member Queens Delegation. He was elected to the Board of the National League of Cities, the major advocacy group for our nation's urban areas, where he served on its Advisory Board.

Archie sponsored a wide range of local laws. His laws established the Environmental Control Board, Business Improvement Districts, Economic Development Zones, and penalties against non-conforming uses in residential areas. He also increased penalties for illegal conversions, created tax abatements for residential housing and unit pricing in drug stores, passed tougher fire, construction, and lead paint safety regulations and increased participation of minority and women owned businesses for city contracts.

Archie's leadership efforts in the community led to the construction of the York College campus, the Addabbo Federal Office Building, the Archer Avenue subway, the Jamaica Multi-Service Center and health clinics throughout Southeast Queens. Archie's leadership as chair of the Council's Housing and Building Committee resulted in the building of thousands of new housing units throughout the City, including a large number in Southeast Queens. In fact, under his Chairmanship, the City's five billion dollar housing programs was started. He also secured funding for new streets and sewers, schools and libraries.

A past Chair of the Queens United Negro College Fund, Archie serves as a Board Member of the Boy Scouts Campaign of America, the Queens Botanical Gardens and United Black Men of Queen. He is a Life Time Member of the NAACP Jamaica Branch; Trustee of Jamaica Hospital, a member of Omega Psi Phi Fraternity and the Lutheran Church of the Resurrection in St. Albans.

Before his election to the City Council, Archie Spigner was active in Amalgamated Transportation Union Local 1056. As a labor activist Archie worked closely with A. Philip Randolph in the formation of the Negro American Labor Council, which fought to open up trade unions and apprenticeship opportunities for African Americans.

As Executive Member and District Leader of the Guy R. Brewer United Democratic Club, Archie was instrumental in electing the first African-American Supreme Court Justice, Assembly Member, State Senator and Congress Member in the Borough of Queens. In addition, Spigner played a key role in the campaigns of Mayor David Dinkins, Percy Sutton, Carl McCall, Rev. Jesse Jackson, Rev. Floyd Flake, William Thompson, Helen Marshall, Barack Obama, and numerous others.

He believes in a strong public education system and funded capital improvements for a significant number of schools. Councilman Spigner is a graduate of Queens College where he also did post graduate work.

Archie is married to Leslie Spigner, a retired school teacher who is very involved in political and civic activities. They reside in Addisleigh Park, Jamaica, NY. He was also married to the late Christine Spigner. He has a son, grandson, two great-granddaughters and two-step sons.

Outstanding Service to the Community of Northeast Queens

Susie Tanenbaum

Since 2002, Susie Tanenbaum has served as Community & Cultural Coordinator in the office of Queens Borough President Helen Marshall.

She is the Borough President's special assistant on Jewish affairs, immigrant affairs, and the Queens General Assembly. She is the constituent liaison to Community Boards 7 and 8, and she oversees the search for the Queens Poet Laureate.

A native of Jackson Heights, Ms. Tanenbaum worked for close to a decade as Program Director & Associate Director of the Jackson Heights Community Development Corporation.

Her volunteer activities have included serving as Co-President of the Jackson Heights-Elmhurst Kehillah and as a founding member of the city-wide L'Olam: Committee on Judaism and Ecology.

With a Master's degree in Urban Studies from Queens College, Ms. Tanenbaum's thesis was published as the book, "Underground Harmonies: Music and Politics in the Subways of New York" (1995: Cornell University Press).

Rooted in the Jewish community, Ms. Tanenbaum enjoys bringing people together across cultural lines and finding ways to make our borough and city more livable environments for everyone.

Samantha Lessa

Samantha Lessa is seventeen years old and a senior at St. Francis Preparatory High School in Fresh Meadows. She is a member of the National Honor Society and is a peer tutor, peer counselor, member of the math team, and volunteer for children with autism at P.S.4, a nearby elementary school.

She was first introduced to the B'nai B'rith Youth Organization in 2001 as a member of teen connection, and joined the chapter Kallah BBG at the Bay Terrace Jewish Center in the 8th grade. She has served on Kallah's board for the past three years as chapter Mazkirah and Shlichah, in charge of communication, community service, social action, and Judaism. Her leadership and dedication have helped Kallah grow into one of the strongest chapters in the Big Apple Region.

She is recognized for developing and organizing outstanding Jewish programs including B'nai Brith Girls inter-chapter Shabbat, and has led her chapter in many local and city community events that include the American Cancer Society's Relay for Life event, and NYC winter wishes holiday gift service for underprivileged families. She has participated in Project Hope food delivery to the elderly and has marched in the Israeli Day Parade since 2007.

Outside of school and BBYO, she has participated in the C.L.A.S.S.P program (Consortia for Learning and Service to Special Populations) and works as an after-school program counselor at P.S. 169 in Bay Terrace. She has spent the last 8 summers at Camp Lohikan as a camper, Counselor in Training, and Junior Counselor. At camp, she is an instructor of the circus arts program, specializing in the flying trapeze. Samantha is currently applying for fall 2010 college admissions and plans to continue making a difference in her community and inspiring others around her to do the same.

David Slotnick

David Slotnick started working at the Samuel Field Y when he was 16 years old and has worked at the Y full-time since 1993, where he started as the Director of Children's Services at the Bay Terrace Center.

David has been the Program Director of Youth and Camping Services at the Y for the past nine years.

He oversees children and youth programming for the entire agency, including Little Neck, Bay Terrace and 8 of the Y's off-site programs, which include nearly 1500 participants and 300 staff.

In addition, David oversees many of the Y's summer camping programs, which include nearly 600 children between the ages of 5 and 15 years old.

He is also responsible for the oversight of the Y's Teen Program, which consists of providing job training opportunities and academic support systems.

On a personal note, David has been married to wife, Michele, for 15 years. They have two children, Sierra and Miranda, who attend programs at the Samuel Field Y and Hebrew School at Bellerose Jewish Center.

COMMUNITY COUNCIL

and THIS YEAR'S HONOREES.

We also thank

for their sponsorship and support. We salute them for their ongoing efforts to identify important community causes and unify the various community organizations to address them.

In 2004, three synagogues - Hillcrest Jewish Center, Marathon Jewish Community Center and Temple Sholom, 100 strong - marched under the umbrella of the Council. Each year we increased our counts through 2009. In 2009, 13 synagogues and organizations, over 400 marchers, united under the umbrella of the Council.

On Sunday, May 23, 2010, we will be marching again up Fifth Avenue. We invite you to express the love and pride that you have for Israel and its multitude of achievements. It will be a day you will always remember.
