

Dr. STEVE GOODMAN, Trustee

The Samuel Field/Bay Terrace YM & YWHA provide myriad services to people of every age and background. The two “Ys” of Bayside and Little Neck have become community anchors to which nearly all of us have tied a line. No one deserves more credit than Dr. Steve Goodman, the Executive Vice-President of the Samuel Field/Bay Terrace YM & YWHA.

Dr. Goodman has dedicated his entire professional life to people, serving both the Board of Education and the Y’s for more than thirty years. Holder of a doctorate in Educational Administration and Research from Columbia University, he has held many prestigious posts: Program Development Consultant for the New York City Board of Education; member, Chancellor’s Task Force for Model Schools of Excellence Program; served on the New York State Board of Regents Task Force for More Effective Schools; teacher at UJA-Federation’s Wiener Center; member, Executive Committee of the New York Region of the Association of Jewish Center Professionals. He has served on Youth Services Committees of Queens Community Boards 7 & 11. He has also been President of Temple Sinai in Roslyn.

Dr. Goodman has received many prior honors: Outstanding Elementary Teacher of America Award; Educator of the Year, Community District 5; Chancellor’s Citation for Education Innovation, NYC Board of Education; Distinguished Service Award, Samuel Field YM & YWHA; Meritorious Service Award, National Education Association.

Dr. Goodman, a dedicated family man, shares life with his wife Sherry, daughter Rebecca, and son Seth.
