

Herb Friedman, Treasurer

Herb Friedman is the Chief Financial Officer of the Metropolitan Council on Jewish Poverty.

A Certified Public Accountant Herb joined Met Council after a distinguished career in the office of the New York City Comptroller.

Many Jewish Community organizations have recognized his contributions.

He previously served as President of the Jewish Center of Bayside Hills, not the merged Jewish Center of Oak Hills.

Northeast Queens Jewish Community Council is honored that Herb gives of his time so freely as the Council moved from a simple non-profit to full 501 c 3 status with many programs funded by government, UJA-Federation and other sources.
