

Linked In: 201

UJA-Federation of New York's
connect to care
The Jewish community at work for you

Date/Time: Thursday, January 7, 2010 | 10am – 12pm

Location: Samuel Field Y

58-20 Little Neck Parkway | Little Neck, NY 11362

RSVP to: (718) 224-0566 or connect-to-care@sfy.org

Workshop Description:

This workshop will cover all basic aspects of using LinkedIn including invitations, inbox messages, profile searches, and editing and managing your profile. It will also go over a few unique features such as network updates, answers, groups, job search, and recommendations.

Prerequisite: You must have a Linked In profile or have attended Linked In 101.

Space is limited. Advanced Registration Required.

Provided in partnership with

F·E·G·S
HEALTH & HUMAN SERVICES SYSTEM

UJA-Federation of New York's Connect to Care is a multi-agency initiative assisting families who have been adversely affected by the economic downturn and provides assistance with:

Employment & Career Transition Services, Legal and Financial Consultations, Supportive Counseling & Jewish Spiritual Care.