■ Tuesday, November 9, 2010

Jewish Ethical Wills and The Value of a Jewish Life

Presenter(s): Rabbi Gary Greene, Connect to Care Team at Samuel Field Y & NYLAG

Location: Marathon Jewish Center: 245-37 60th Avenue Douglaston, NY 11362

Date/Time: Tuesday, November 9, 2010 | 10am - 12pm

Description: This Session will discuss Jewish Ethical Wills and the Benefit of Passing Jewish Values on to Those We Leave Behind. This session will explore various types of Jewish Wills created during the past century and offer a perspective of how to plan for retirement and long term care needs for your Real Property and Jewish Life needs. Please join Rabbi Gary Greene and the Queens Connect to Care Team of social workers, financial professionals & elder law attorneys from NYLAG as we discuss concrete ways to address some of these concerns.

■ Tuesday, November 23, 2010

A Child's Responsibility for a Parent's Debt

Presenter(s): Rabbi Robyn Fryer Bodzin, Connect to Care Team at Samuel Field Y & NYLAG

Location: Israel Center of Conservative Judaism: 167-11 73rd Avenue Flushing, NY 11366

Date/Time: Tuesday, November 23, 2010 | 8pm - 9:30pm

Description: Caring for an aging parent can present tremendous financial, emotional, & physical challenges. This session will explore a broad collection of Jewish sources related to caring for your parents and honoring them & your relationship with them regardless of where or how care is provided. Retirement Planning & Long Term Care Planning concerns will be addressed, including a discussion about the benefits of speaking with legal and financial professionals during the long term care planning process; especially for families concerned about asset protection. Please join Rabbi Robyn Fryer Bodzin and our team of social workers, financial professionals, & elder law attorneys from NYLAG as we discuss concrete ways to address some of these concerns.

■ Tuesday, December 14, 2010

Honoring and Forgiveness: Managing Healthy Relationships During Challenging Times

Presenter(s): Rabbi Manes Kogan, Connect to Care Team at Samuel Field Y, SNAP, Bikur Cholim

Location: Hillcrest Jewish Center: 183-02 Union Turnpike Flushing, NY 11366

Date/Time: Tuesday, December 14, 2010 | 7:30pm - 9pm

Description: Personal relationships during transitional or other difficult times present enormous challenges for family members, friends & the entire community. This session will take you on a journey through 3 Talmudic stories highlighting the significant emotional, physical, psychological & financial impacts families have faced throughout history & will discuss concrete coping skills and how to care for ourselves & those closest to us. Please join Rabbi Manes Kogan & our team of social workers as we discuss healthy & concrete ways to address these concerns.
